North Wheeling Property Sold.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record a deed made April 18, by George Wise, executor, to Thomas J. Ball, for $11,000, part of lot 58 in the old town of Wheeling, on the southeast corner of Main and Eighth streets.

Bartlett-Paden.

Mr. J. E. Bartlett, cashier of the Wheeling county bank, at New Martinsville, and Miss Ada Paden were married at that place yesterday by Rev. E. T. Caton. They arrived in Wheeling on the Ohio river train last night on their way west on a bridal tour.

Church Entertainment.

On Thursday evening of this week the Young's Society of the St. Stephen's congregation, Lutheran, on the South Side, will give an entertainment for the benefit of the church, which promises to be a successful affair, as the sale of tickets has been very heavy.

Real Estate Sales.

Rinehart & Tatum have sold for the heirs of John McLure, to Frank Gruse, part of lot No. 27, in Graham's addition, on Fifteenth street; consideration, $4,550. They also sold for S. J. Good to George W. Lemmon, the north half of lot No. 3 in the Old Fair grounds addition, on North Washburn street, for $1,300.

All Paid but Two.

There were ninety-eight cases in the police court yesterday, all from the raid on immoral houses Saturday night. The fines and costs aggregated $1,040.25. All paid but two. One girl went to jail and one man to the workhouse. The latter was a cripple who had been begging about town for several days, and then spent in a house of ill fame the money misguidedly people gave him. There are a number of similar imposters "working the town" just now.

An Enjoyable Entertainment.

A very enjoyable concert and festival was given at the Baptist church one evening last week. All the numbers were good, but some especially fine music was rendered by a quartette from Etanville. Their "Singing Lesson" brought down the house. Some very fine selections were also given by Miss Gullwood, of New Orleans. Miss Gullwood is a vocalist of a high order, and the generous applause she received showed that her music was appreciated.

The Irwins Victorious.

Sunday afternoon, on the Peninsula grounds, the W. W. Irwin base ball team defeated the Mayapple team by a score of 12 to 11, after nine hard fought innings. The batteries were Rafferty and Miller of the Irwins and Duff and Edwards for the Mayapples. Johnny Watson, the Irwins' crack batter, sent the winning runs over the plate on a hot liner. The victorious team has not lost a game this season, and claim they are champions of their class.

In the Circuit Court.

In Judge Campbell's court yesterday the case of W. L. Rees, an infant, who sues by his next friend, vs. the Wheeling & Elm Grove Railway Company, was put on trial. It is a suit to recover for injuries sustained by being thrown from a car on the defendant's road some time ago.

In Judge Paul's court the case of Frank Robrecht vs. J. H. Nolte's executor was tried and a verdict rendered for the plaintiff in the sum of $20.

The case of James Downman vs. Mary Armstrong was then put on trial. In the case of James McDonald vs. Anna Laura Sage and husband the motion to dismiss was overruled, as was also the demurrer, and the office judgment heretofore obtained was set aside.

Death of Mrs. Hamilton.

Mrs. Mary Hamilton, mother of Mr. I. Y. Hamilton, of Washington, Pa., and grandmother of Mrs. John P. Glass, of this city, died yesterday morning at her home near Cannonsburg, Washington county, Pa., at the advanced age of 81 years. She had been sick less than a week with pneumonia, and her mental faculties remained unimpaired up to the last moment.

Every man having a beard should keep it an even and natural color, and if it is not so already, use Backing-ham's Dye and appear tidy.

ENDED IN A DITCH.

The Reckless Career of an Elm Grove Man Yesterday

STIRRED UP THE SOUTH SIDE

By His Reckless Driving and Narrow Escapes—Finally Landed in a Railroad Ditch and is Arrested—South Side Girl Seriously Injured by a Boy—Other Accidents Throughout the City.

Quite a stir was created on the South Side yesterday afternoon by the misadventures of a man named Ed. Bach, from Elm Grove, who, under the influence of liquor, passed through tight places that a sober man would have never dreamed of attempting. About 4 o'clock Bach telephoned to John Dumas' livery stable, near the Second ward market house, for a rig, which was sent to him at Wilhelm's saloon. Here he entered both the buggy and a career of an hour's recklessness, from which he emerged in the city bastille, somewhat battered up but comparatively unhurt.

Driving down Market street on the South Side he attracted general observation. Two or three times his rig narrowly escaped being wrecked by the street cars. At the corner of Thirty-fifth and Jacob streets, in making a sharp turn, the buggy turned over, and Bach was thrown out on the ground, fortunately unhurt. Spectators righted the buggy, and the man proceeded on his way down the street. Everywhere the recklessness of the man was noticed, and the Dumas stable was telephoned seven or eight times by persons knowing to whom the rig belonged, and the result was that Will Dumas went down on horseback after the man, who in the meantime was continuing on his wild career.

After numerous narrow escapes Bach wound up his escapade on McCulloch street, between Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth. He was endeavoring to get over onto Jacob street and seemed to have lost his bearings, if he ever had any, and started up an alley and over an eight-foot ditch, which was crossed by four narrow boards. The horse, with more sense than the driver, didn't want to proceed, but was persuaded to by the lash. The result was that the horse, man and buggy went into the ditch in a promiscuous heap. The horse endeavored to climb out on the Baltimore & Ohio track, and but for the watchfulness of the engineer of a switching engine would have been run over. The wreck was finally straightened out, and the driver, in charge by young Dumas, was taken to police headquarters and placed under arrest.

More Reckless Driving.

Byron Kennedy, of the South Side, was delivering ice yesterday afternoon on South Water street, near Fortieth, when an unknown man driving a delivery wagon ran into his rig, resulting in a broken singletree and spokes. The unknown man drove away and has thus far escaped detection.

Girl Badly Hurt.

The three-year-old daughter of William Schoenien, who lived at the head of Thirty-eighth street, South Side, was seriously injured by a boy playmate. The boy was throwing stones and one of them struck the little girl on the head, and seriously injured her.

Broke His Arm.

The young son of William Henry, of the Sixth ward, whose arm was broken while playing leap frog a day or two ago, is slowly recovering. Dr. Campbell attended the boy.

Open to the Ladies.

Many Wheeling ladies are bowling enthusiasts, and have expressed a desire to roll on the Muses alleys. It will be proposed at the next meeting of the stockholders to inaugurate ladies' evenings on two nights each week. This will be popular, no doubt.

The Evolution

Of medicinal agents is gradually relegating the old-time herbs, pills, draughts and vegetable extracts to the rear and bringing into general use the pleasant and effective liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs. To get the true remedy see that it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only. For sale by all leading druggists.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Wheeling Dairy Association at a meeting held on April 12, 1894:

WHEREAS, There has been before the council of the city of Wheeling, the appointment of a milk inspector for the said city, out of which has probably grown the tax or license imposed on the milkmen; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Association will not use any influence for said inspector as it is a matter that belongs entirely to the consumers of milk.

PRICES THAT TALK—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

PRICES THAT TALK!

DON'T listen to all the tales of woe that are filling the air, pitched on different keys. There's a snake in the grass somewhere, you may be sure, but if you go to the dance you must expect to pay the piper. Put your faith in our good, reliable Clothes that are marked just what they are worth. We never burn the midnight oil fixing prices.

The suits in our $10 grade are suggestive of a higher price. They would be marked $12 or $15 in any other house. We've filled up fresh with a variety of these Suits. Reliable, if they are cheap. It will take more than one doctoring of the price to meet us on even ground. There are all styles and patterns.

It's as plain as day if we put the usual $15 quality into our $10 line, we must turn still better values into this grade, and we do it. It keeps us about $5 under all competition. Everything about them is perfection itself. The fabric, the finish, the style. They are beauties for business wear, gems for dress. Quality unalloyed in all of them. Nobody can Boat Them! There's no doubt about it. Ours is the best Clothing in the city. It is worn by the best dressers. We take pains to see that it is perfect to the minutest detail, and with every Suit we voluntarily give our guarantee. With us that means Unconditional Satisfaction or your money back.

You ought to see our line of CHILDREN'S SHORT PANTS SUITS at $2.75 and $3.48. Two dollars more won't buy a bit better Suit anywhere else.

SHOES—O'KANE & CO.

Not for Our Health.

We're not in "business for our health." We don't sell shoes at cost. Our low prices come from two things: We know how to buy right and we are willing to get rich slowly. It isn't what we make on one pair of shoes that we look at so much as to the profit we'll make on your regular trade. That's what we want. It will pay us and pay you too. Ask to see our Ladies' Shoes at $2.00 and $2.75. They "speak louder than ads."
